

Does your child display any of the common behaviors associated with a vision problem?

- One eye drifts or turns in a different direction than the other
- Turns or tilts head while reading or during other visual activities
- Head is frequently tilted to one side or one shoulder is noticeably higher
- Squinting or closing of one eye
- Excessive blinking or squinting
- Poor visual/motor coordination skills (hand-eye coordination)
- Problems judging distances while moving in space
- Frequently bumps into objects or drops things
- Frequently loses items

Does your child display any of the common physical symptoms associated with a vision problem?

- Double vision
- Blurry vision
- Attention difficulties
- Concentration issues
- Headaches or eye strain
- Nausea or dizziness
- Motion sickness or car sickness

Does your child display difficulty with reading and other near vision tasks?

- Reading below grade level
- Holds reading material or object too close
- Closes or covers one eye
- Tilts head toward book or object
- Uses finger or ruler to read
- Frequently loses place and/or skips words
- Repeats lines when reading
- Fatigues easily
- Rubs eyes during or after periods of reading or close work
- Reports that words move on page or run together
- Often knocks things over on a desk or table
- Avoids or dislikes homework